

Board Profile: Julius Robinson

Introduction:

Julius Robinson is a seasoned banking professional with over 39 years of experience in the financial industry. Currently serving as the Managing Director and Head of MUFG Union Bank's Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Group for the Americas, he is known for his dedication to corporate philanthropy, community engagement, and environmental stewardship. In this profile, we will delve into Mr. Robinson's professional background, notable achievements, education, professional affiliations, philosophy, and vision for the future.

Professional Background:

Julius Robinson's career journey began in 1986 when he joined MUFG Union Bank. Over the years, he has honed his expertise in various aspects of banking, including credit analysis, underwriting, residential mortgage, commercial and consumer lending, community development lending and investment. His extensive banking knowledge forms the foundation of his current role as the head of the CSR Group for the Americas.

Notable Achievements:

One of Mr. Robinson's standout achievements is his remarkable dedication to community involvement. He currently serves as the Vice-Chairman of Operation HOPE's Northwest Board of Directors, reflecting his commitment to expanding economic opportunities in underserved communities. Additionally, he chairs the Board of Directors for Students Rising Above, where he actively supports low-income, first-generation college students in their pursuit of higher education and career success. Chairman of the MUFG Union Bank charitable Foundation. Julius has received numerous acknowledgements, awards, proclamations and recognitions from civic government officials, state and federal legislators for his community development achievements and impact.

Education:

Julius Robinson's academic journey began at the United States International University, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in international relations and economics. He furthered his education by completing the post-graduate program at the prestigious Pacific Coast Banking School at the University of Washington, Seattle. To enhance his expertise in corporate community involvement, he also holds a Certificate of Practice from Boston College Carroll School of Management.

Professional Affiliations:

Mr. Robinson's dedication to community and education is further reflected in his involvement in various boards and councils. He has been Chairman of the Northwestern Regional Board of Operation HOPE,

Chairman of the Board of Trustees at Alliant International University, and currently serves on the USC LAA Corporate Advisory Council. He is a member of the Western Region Minority Supplier Diversity Council Corporate Advisory Board. Community Reinvestment Act Committee of the Consumer Bankers Association. These roles demonstrate his commitment to fostering positive change in the fields of education and economic empowerment.

Philosophy and Vision:

Julius Robinson's philosophy revolves around the belief that responsible corporate citizenship is not only an ethical duty but also a pathway to positive societal transformation. His vision is to continue spearheading meaningful corporate social responsibility initiatives that leave a lasting impact on communities in the Americas. He envisions a future where businesses actively contribute to social and environmental well-being while maintaining financial stability.

Summary:

Julius Robinson's illustrious career in banking and his unwavering commitment to social responsibility and community engagement make him a prominent figure in the corporate world. His leadership and dedication to philanthropy and education exemplify the values of MUFG Union Bank and reflect positively on the broader financial industry. Mr. Robinson's legacy serves as an inspiration for professionals and organizations looking to make a difference in the world while achieving financial success.