

Board Profile: Dr. Brenda A. Allen

Introduction:

Dr. Brenda A. Allen, Lincoln University's 14th President, is a visionary leader committed to enhancing the institution's legacy of producing global leaders committed to social justice through the liberal arts. Her strategic approach to academic quality, operational efficiency, and facility enhancement has propelled the University's growth and prominence.

Professional Background:

Dr. Allen's leadership journey has spanned esteemed institutions, each marked by her transformative impact. Before her presidency at Lincoln University, she served as Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs at Winston Salem State University (WSSU), where she implemented curriculum revisions, established doctoral programs, and raised substantial funds for capital projects and scholarships.

Notable Achievements:

Dr. Allen's achievements at WSSU include expanding research funding, strengthening advising, and advancing diversity. Her tenure at Brown University saw the successful co-authorship of a $3.3 million National Science Foundation ADVANCE grant, significant increases in the number of women and minority faculty members, and impressive fundraising for diversity initiatives.

Education:

- Bachelor's degree in Psychology, Lincoln University
- Master's degree in Experimental Psychology, Howard University
- Doctorate in Developmental Psychology, Howard University

Professional Affiliations:

Dr. Allen's affiliations include her roles at Smith College and Yale University. Her dedication to diversity, fundraising, curriculum enhancement, and faculty development underscores her commitment to higher education's advancement.

Philosophy and Vision:

Dr. Allen's philosophy centers on the power of the liberal arts in fostering global leaders committed to social justice. Her vision for Lincoln University focuses on academic excellence, operational efficiency, and facilities enhancement, ultimately creating an environment that empowers students to excel as compassionate world leaders.

Summary:

Dr. Brenda A. Allen's tenure as Lincoln University's President epitomizes visionary leadership and commitment to excellence. Her transformative impact on curriculum, faculty development, diversity, and facility enhancement speaks to her dedication to higher education's advancement. With a strong foundation in psychology, developmental research, and an unwavering commitment to social justice, Dr. Allen's presidency at Lincoln University continues to shape the institution's trajectory toward greatness.